EDITOR'S CORNER

Barking V Frenford

Good afternoon everyone, and welcome to Lawtech Stadium for this Essex Senior League tie against Frenford!

We come into today's game after a difficult run of fixtures in both league and cup action, starting with a 4-0 victory over Saffron Walden Town in the league (Bademosi, Hirst x3), before beating Hullbridge Sports 1-0 (Rowland) to progress to the semi-finals of the Peter Butcher Memorial Trophy. Last Saturday saw another 1-0 scoreline as a first goal for Shaye La-Rose saw us gain another 3 points away to Halstead Town before a rain-soaked Tuesday saw us draw 1-1 with league leaders Tilbury, Luke Hirst on the scoresheet. Reports for the latter 3 fixtures can be found in this programme, alongside information about some exciting events taking place at the Lawtech Stadium!

We would also like to wish all fans and players of Frenfords as well as the officials and any neutrals a safe journey home from Lawtech Stadium today.

Come on you Blues!

TILBURY 1-1 BARKING

Tuesday 26 March 2024 – Essex Senior League – Report by Terry Gilbert

Barking and league leaders Tilbury braved the relentless rain in a hard-earned draw. The match played in challenging conditions, with both teams fighting for control amidst the continual pouring rain..

The game began with Barking showing early promise, after two minutes Luke Hirst set up Kenedi Dariri for a chance, only for his shot to be directed straight at Tilbury (and former Barking) goalkeeper Harry Girling.

However, it was Tilbury who struck first on 22nd minutes, capitalising on a defensive slip by Joe Clark and Shea Hutchison seized the opportunity to score, leaving Barking goalkeeper Max Spence stranded and finishing into an unguarded net. It should be noted this was only the fifth league goal conceded by the Blues in 2024. The goal seemed to deflate Barking momentarily, allowing Tilbury to maintain control and dictate the tempo of the game for the remainder of the first half. Despite their efforts, Barking struggled to regain their footing in the match and were content to hear the halftime whistle, hoping to regroup and mount a comeback in the second half.

The start of the second half mirrored the first, with Tilbury threatening early on, but Barking gradually clawed their way back into the game. On 52 minutes, Jack Folan played a decisive through ball to Luke Hirst, who outpaced the last defender and fired home the equaliser from an acute angle for his 20th goal of the season.

As the game wore on, both teams grappled with the challenging conditions, with the ball skidding across the waterlogged pitch and getting stuck in puddles from short passes. Tilbury continued to press forward, earning a number of set pieces, but Barking's defence, with some excellent clearances from Clark and Pat Ahern, held firm to keep the score level. Other defensive highlights were Junior Kaffo making a superb defensive header from one corner and from another Max Spence getting down well to smother the ball and snuff out the danger from another. In the closing stages of the game, both teams pushed for a winner, on 81 a clever pass from Sam Dowridge freed Izzy Bademosi but Girling denied him by getting to the ball first. There was a late penalty shout for handball from Barking but the referee remained unmoved, ultimately both teams settled for a point and the game concluded as it began in pouring rain.

FRENFORD

Frenford clubs was founded in 1928 by Jack Carter, originally as a boys club. By 1930 it had grown into a sports and social club and during the war years Frenford Senior Football Section was started, playing in the local football league in various venues in Ilford and the surrounding area. Up until the 1970s Frenford had only one men's side. In the early 70s Frenford reserve side was started mostly made up of the under 18s boys team. We now run a number of teams who play in The Essex Senior Reserve Football League, The Essex Alliance League and The Essex Vets League. On the field the club has enjoyed many successful seasons in the leagues in which they have played and are now one of the most well-known clubs in this area. No club of any sporting interest can withstand the test of time without the support of its members and their families. Perhaps one of the clubs greatest strengths is its ability and willingness to call upon its members for an environment of friendship and team spirit. Therefore it can certainly be said that this clubs greatest asset are its members and their families.

Over the past 10 years Frenford has developed its Youth and Women's section, adding to our 5 Saturday Teams. Frenford now has a record 30 teams across all sections and has an enormous presence in the Community delivering projects at various venues, schools and most notably working with the Police to support and deter young people from crime.

Our First teams reached new heights and made History, by winning the Thurlow Nunn South Division League in the 2022/23 season and were promoted into the Essex Senior League.

Our journey continues.... ..

HALSTEAD TOWN 0-1 BARKING

Saturday 23 March 2024 – Essex Senior League – Report by Terry Gilbert

We were seeking to erase the memory of the 6-0 drubbing suffered back on October 28th, which ultimately led to the change in management and fortunes. However, we did manage to secure a narrow victory by just one goal scored by Shaye La-Rose, his first for the club in 23 appearances as we won 1-0 for the second match in a row.

Credit must be given to Halstead Town, who despite being reduced to ten men six minutes before half time, continued to push on and resist, even hitting our bar late in the game.

But in the end we were not to be denied our fifth consecutive win in league and cup matches.

Pat Ahern, who has been signed on a dual registration from Witham Town, made his debut and contributed towards the team's clean sheet.

Both teams struggled to find their rhythm early on, which was characterised by a flurry of activity around each other's penalty areas. Dan Purdue did face a setback due to a collision while attempting to thwart a scoring opportunity, but he managed to shake off the effects as the half progressed. The flow of the game was disrupted by a series of niggly fouls, stopping any significant momentum for either side. At the 23rd minute mark, Connor Witherspoon won the ball and fed it to Luke Hirst whose shot was saved by Halstead keeper Jack Cherry, albeit after a second attempt. Halstead pushed forward with purpose on 32, when a slick passing move found Joel Older but his attempt from a tight angle went wide. Barking retaliated with intent, pressing forward themselves with seven minutes of the half left when another good passing move ends with Fahad Nyanja heading on for Izzy Bademosi who fires in a shot and although Cherry spills the ball Jack Dickinson can't take advantage of the slight error. However, a reckless challenge on Hirst by Lewis Cunliffe of Halstead, results in a straight red card for the home player after 39th minutes and reduces Halstead's player count for the remainder of the match. There is not much to report for the rest of the half, except for a sudden shower of hail which prompted supporters to quickly seek shelter in the stand.

As the second half commenced, Barking tried to seize the initiative, applying pressure on Halstead's defence to try to make the man advantage count. Even after making two substitutions, Barking couldn't convert their efforts into clear-cut opportunities, while Halstead seemed to be moving closer and closer back to their own box. After 63 minutes the visitors had their most promising attack to date when Shaye La-Rose found Nyanja who ran into the area and delivered a tempting cross into the box which narrowly evaded the foot of Sam Dowridge. The breakthrough finally came after 73 minutes, as Pat Ahern found Shaye La-Rose who ran down the line, cutting across the penalty area to unleash a powerful shot past the stranded Cherry into the net.

The goal sends Barking off seeking a second, with 75 gone Hirst finds Dowridge but he can only shoot wide of the target, four minutes later Hirst robs Cherry in the area and with the goal unguarded his shot finds only the side of the net.

With a minute left there was a nervy moment as a Halstead corner was cleared, but not far enough and a looping shot thankfully drops on to the bar and goes over. That was the last chance for either side and after four added minutes the final whistle blew to give us our fifth consecutive victory.

HULLBRIDGE SPORTS 0-1 BARKING

Tuesday 19 March – Peter Butcher Memorial Trophy Quarter Final – Report by Terry Gilbert

Barking secured a spot in the semi-finals of the Peter Butcher Memorial Trophy for the second consecutive year. Victory was clinched by a narrow 1-0 scoreline, Brad Rowland's goal in the 42nd minute ultimately proving to be the decisive factor in the match.

Barking fielded a strong starting eleven, backed up by an equally strong bench that was fully utilised in the second half.

The game kicked off with a brisk pace, but neither goalkeeper was truly tested for most of the first half. However, on 14 minutes, a Hullbridge free kick caused some trouble for Barking keeper Max Spence problems as he turned the ball round the post and he was then forced into another save to keep the score level. Barking started to assert themselves with shots from Sam Dowridge and Brad Rowland, although neither found the target. In the 28th minute, a promising passage of play ended with Warren Kayembe heading over, this was followed by Rowland delivering to Luke Hirst whose flick header was comfortably collected by Brad Davison in the home goal. As the first half progressed, both teams struggled to create clear-cut chances until three minutes before halftime when Dowridge found Brad Rowland, who took the ball on the run and confidently drilled the ball past Davison to give Barking the lead and score his fifth goal of the season in the process.

The goal injected some energy into Barking's play and they created a couple of chances in added time, with Hirst's shot saved and Karl Kayembe's effort narrowly missing the target.

Half time Hullbridge Sports 0 Barking 1.

Early in the second half, Hullbridge pressed for an equaliser while Barking looked to capitalise on the break. Tobi Coker of Hullbridge had a half chance but couldn't find a teammate with his cross. Hullbridge then came agonisingly close to levelling the score on the hour mark when a shot hit the post. Barking's first notable break in a while came in the 68th minute when substitute Izzy Bademosi displayed skillful footwork to create space, but his cross eluded fellow sub Jack Dickinson. Hullbridge continued to push for an equaliser and on 74 thought they had one when a long cross into the box was headed goalward by Oscar Onuorah and Max Spence who seemed to be going the wrong way managed to get something on the ball and it was subsequently cleared. Five minutes later Hullbridge have another chance through Coker which is deflected behind for a corner and from that a Spence punch produces another and finally there is a Hullbridge shot sailed over the bar, but Barking's defence held firm. As the game approached its conclusion, neither goalkeeper was seriously tested and Barking successfully saw out the remaining minutes of normal and added time to qualify for the semi-final.
